Your stress-free guide for applying to college

Junior year

September

Have the "college" talk with your parents

Where do you want to go? What major? How much can you spend?

October

Take the PSAT

It can give you an idea of where you fall in the college applicant pool. Plus, your scores may make you eligible for national scholarships.

November

Consider how you'll pay for college

Scholarships? Financial aid? Student loans? A combo? Start looking into your options.

December

Take the ACT/SAT

These tests are crucial to figuring out which schools are a good match for you. Consider taking practice tests and even a prep course to ensure that you get your best score possible.

March

Make a list

Keep a focused list of schools you're interested in. Start planning campus visits for the spring and summer.

Senior year

August

Start your essays

With your top schools in mind, start drafting your essays and be sure to leave yourself time for edits, edits, and more edits.

September

Secure letters of recommendation

Reach out to teachers, coaches, and employers who would be happy to write you a glowing review. Don't forget to send them a thank you note afterwards!

October

Submit your FAFSA

Some student aid programs award funds on a first-come, first-served basis so don't wait too long to submit your FAFSA.

Consider re-taking standardized tests

You can also re-take your SAT to try to raise your score.

November

Stay on top of deadlines

Don't let the date for early application sneak up on you. Many schools have different application deadlines; make sure you know when everything is due.

January

Apps are due

January 1st is the universal deadline for most schools' applications, so make sure yours are in. If you applied early action, you could get your decision letter any day.

February

Mail's here

Keep an eye out for your college acceptance letters.

March

Watch for award letters

This is when you'll get financial aid award letters from the schools that have accepted you. Compare them to see which offers the best financial aid package.

April

Decision time

After deciding where you'd like to go, make sure to stay on top of communications from your school. Deposits, forms, and housing apps are all due prior to leaving in the fall.

May

Make a budget

Talk with your parents to figure out how much you'll expect to earn and pay while at school. Having a budget will start you on the journey toward financial responsibility.

Summer

Final to-do items

You can choose to attend orientation, register for your classes, and make sure your tuition bill is paid. Don't forget, it's also the time to have fun!

Applying to college is a busy time

With all the essays, forms, and deposits, it's easy to overlook some of the simple tasks. Don't forget to check these off your list:

- See if your bank has branches and/or ATMs in your college's city. If not, consider opening a bank account at a local bank.
- Limit roaming charges by double checking your cell phone plan. Does your plan cover your college's location?
- Coordinate with your future roommate. Two TVs, two microwaves, and two futons are too much in a dorm.
- Get checked up! Visit the eye doctor, dentist, and physician before heading out.
- Make a plan to keep in touch. A video chat with your best friend or a letter from your family can be a nice reminder of home.
